the bottom of the barrier or enclosure shall be four inches measured to a hard surface, such as concrete, or two inches to earth. This measurement shall be taken on the side of the barrier or enclosure which faces away from the swimming pool. Where the top of the pool structure is above grade, such as an above-ground pool, the barrier or enclosure may be at ground level, such as the pool structure, or mounted on top of the pool structure. Where the barrier or enclosure is mounted on top of the pool structure, the maximum vertical clearance between the top of the pool structure and bottom of the barrier or enclosure shall be four inches.

2. Openings in the barrier or enclosure shall not allow passage of a four-inch diameter sphere.

3. Solid barriers or enclosures which do not have openings, such as masonry or stone walls, shall not contain indentations or protrusions except for tooled masonry joints.

Where the barrier or enclosure is composed of horizontal and vertical members and the distance between the tops of the horizontal members is less than 45 inches, the horizontal members shall be located on the swimming pool side of the barrier or enclosure. Spacing between vertical members shall not exceed two inches in width. Where there are decorative cutouts within vertical members, spacing within the cutouts shall not exceed two inches in width.

5. Where the barrier or enclosure is composed of horizontal and vertical members and the distance between the tops of the horizontal members is 45 inches or more, spacing between vertical members shall not exceed four inches. Where there are decorative cutouts within vertical members, spacing within the cutouts shall not exceed two inches in width.

6. Maximum mesh size for chain link fences shall be a two-inch square. The wire shall not be less than 11-1/2 gauge. The two-inch square is a nominal dimension and is intended to include standard chain link fencing fabric within construction tolerances.

7. Where the barrier or enclosure is composed of diagonal members, such as a lattice fence, the maximum opening formed by the diagonal members shall be no more than two inches square.

8. Access gates shall comply with the requirements of items (A)(1) through (7) of this section and shall be equipped to accommodate a locking device no less than 54 inches above grade. Pedestrian access gates shall open outward away from the pool and shall be self-closing and have a self-latching device. Gates other than pedestrian access gates shall comply with the requirements of items (A)(1) through (7) of this section and shall be equipped with a locking device.
